ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Nathan Dungan is the founder and president of Share Save Spend. For more than 20 years, Nathan has been an industry thought-leader on helping youth and adults link their money decisions to their values. He is one of the national media's go-to experts on personal finances and the effects of mass marketing on money habits. He has been a featured guest on CBS, CNN, PBS and public radio's Marketplace Money, Sound Money, and Speaking of Faith. He wrote his first book, Prodigal Sons and Material Girls: How Not to Be Your Child's ATM, to help parents influence and shape their child's financial habits.

ABOUT AGF

AGF is a regional association that provides educational resources, research and networking opportunities for grantmakers in Arizona. Member organizations make financial grants to non-profit organizations throughout the state and represent the interests of private foundations, trusts, endowed community foundations, corporations, government agencies and individuals with organized charitable gift programs. AGF's mission is to increase, enhance and improve philanthropy in Arizona, with the vision that the state's expanding philanthropic community, working collaboratively, invests their resources wisely to make a profound positive difference for Arizona's communities. Learn more about Arizona Grantmakers Forum and our member organizations at www.azgrantmakers.org.
