

Michael K. McCoy
Sr. Program Officer, The Meadows Foundation

Mike began his career in public service with the Cities of Mesquite and Dallas. During this time, he sought outside funding for police departments; managed the research function of a juvenile diversion project; managed the planning unit of the human development office of the city manager; and led performance audit teams.

He then represented the legislative and regulatory interests of a $4 billion consumer finance company in ten northeastern states.

For the last twenty years, he has worked for the Meadows Foundation as a program officer. Mike is a member of Texas Environmental Grantmakers Group and he serves on the board of directors of Arlington Life Shelter, Faith and Philanthropy Institute, and Crime Victims Council.

Mike received his MBA degree in Marketing from the University of Texas at Arlington. He is married with three adult children and serves his Presbyterian Church as an Elder.
