

PHILANTHROPY AT WORK

FUNDERS SUPPORT HEALTHY LIVING

It's just about time for another Olympics - not in Beijing or London, but right here in Phoenix. Tanner Community Development Corporation (TCDC), supported by St. Luke's Health Initiatives and a number of Valley philanthropies, hosts a mini-Olympics just about every year, along with a variety of healthy activities, educational events, and health-screening opportunities. TCDC is focused on seeing to it that the community responds to the issue of health disparities among minorities. Outreach, education and fun are all combined as the people of South Phoenix work to help themselves improve their health and well-being.
