HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Empire Southwest invests in the social and physical environment of the communities in which it operates through its philanthropic arm, The Whiteman Foundation. The Child Crisis Center is one of The Whiteman Foundation's fortunate grant recipients.

To the hundreds of children needing shelter at the Child Crisis Center each year, their "safe place" just became a lot more like "home." A $500,000 grant from The Whiteman Foundation made a complete renovation of the Child Crisis Center's emergency shelter possible, making home away from home the ideal healing place for our community's most vulnerable citizens.
